CYCLE TOURS
& CAMPING IN
THE ADVENTURE WORLD
LÜNEBURG HEATH

www.erlebnisswelt-lueneburger-heide.de

ALLER CULTURE

Length: 19 km
Route: Ahlden - Elite - Bierde - Hodenhagen - Ahlden

- Starting Point: Ahlden, car park next to the church
- The hamlet Ahlden (Aller) was first mentioned in a document in 1140. A real tragedy took place at the castle at the 'Alte Leine' and everybody will be glad to tell you the story about the Princess of Ahlden. Nowadays the castle is privately owned and houses an arts auction house. The Church of St. John the Baptist is open from May to September. It is also worthwhile to take a stroll through the Bible Garden behind the church. In the village there are many historical buildings and at the end of the village you can visit the well-preserved 'Scheunenviertel' (barn quarter).
- It is worthwhile to make a detour to the Ahldener Schlenke to see the Wodan Oak and the streams of the 'Alte Leine'.
- You cross the Aller in Elite and go through picturesque hedgerow country in the direction of Bierde. The St. Veits Chapel in Bierde is an ideal place for a break (open May to September).
- The route continues through the beautiful woodland of Ahrendshelde to Hodenhagen. The 'Brink Site' with the 'Brink House' at the banks of the Aller is well worth seeing. The village is well-known for the Serengeti Park Hodenhagen. Animals from five continents live in this Big Game Park which is open from March to October.

ALLER LOCKS

Length: 53 km
Route: Schwarmstedt - Suderbruch - Gilten - Grethem - Hadenstorf - Marklendorf - Schwarmstedt

- Starting Point: Schwarmstedt, car park at the town hall/registry office
- The state-approved resort Schwarmstedt is situated in the middle of a lovely river and meadow countryside and offers manifold leisure activities. The Church St. Laurentius from 1100 is open year-round. The 'Uhle-Hof', a community centre and venue, also houses the public library.
- Away from busy roads, the cycle route runs via Norddrebber and Stöckendrebber to Suderbruch. You cross the 'Schotenheide' and pass a Trakehner stud in Eschenworth.
- During the harvest time for highbush blueberries (July – September) you can collect your travelling fare on the plantations.
- In Gilten you ought to take a look at the unique floor of St. Paul's Church made of river pebbles. It is open from May to September.
- Bothmer Windmill from the year 1822 welcomes cyclists and the School Museum 'Alte Dorfschule Bothmer' invites you to experience a 'lesson as in the days of the Emperor'.
- At the locks in Hadenstorf and Marklendorf you can cross the Aller on pedestrian bridges. This is the perfect place for a break: in the middle of unspoilt nature.

ALLER NATURE

Length: 25 km
Route: Rethem - Kirchwahlen - Altenwahlen - Böhme - Bierde - Elite - Bosse - Rethem

- Starting Point: Rethem (Aller), car park at the town hall
- The little town of Rethem (Aller) that looks back on over 650 years of town history is located at the lower reaches of the Aller in the middle of vast marshlands. In the Lönzpark there is the post mill from the year 1593. The newly constructed 'Burghof' at the banks of the Aller is Rethem's new event venue. A nature trail runs around Rethem with information boards that tell you a lot about the landscape along the Alpe, Wolpe and Aller.
- In Kirchwahlen you can visit a 1000-year old fortified church. The Church of the Holy Cross is open from May to September.
- The 'Rittergut Böhme' was first mentioned in 1407. The octagonal Manor Chapel can be visited by appointment. Unspoilt nature is awaiting you and so you will go through picturesque hedge row country towards Bierde.
- You will cross the Aller again and the route continues towards Elite. If you are lucky, you will meet some paddlers just starting their tour at the jetty.
- Why not interrupt your cycle tour and rent a canoe at the rental station Bosse? Go for a paddling tour and discover the diverse riverscape from the waterside. At the camp site 'Rittergut Frankenfeld' there are also water skiing facilities.

TOUR NO. 1 - A LITTLE TOUR OF THE HEATH

Length: 27 km
Route: Bispingen - Borstel - Hörpel - Döhle - Ahlfen - Friedrickheck - Oeningen - Harber - Tetendorf - Soltau

- This route will give you a taste of the beauty of our Heath and will arouse your curiosity about further peculiarities of the region.
- The tour starts at the Tourist Information in Bispingen.
- Past the Borstel Hollows and the excavated tumulus.
- In Hörpel there is a tithe barn, an old baking oven and a historical granary.
- Having passed Döhle, you will see wild horses and cattle at the Radenbach Valley.
- Pastor Bode Trail
- Wilsede with the Heath Museum, several exhibitions in historical buildings, 'Trink-und Milchhalle' (refreshment stand), restaurants.
- Totengrund
- Through the Friedwald (woodland burial ground) via Behringen back to Bispingen.

ADVENTURE TOUR SOLTAU

Length: 35 km
Route: Soltau - Tetendorf - Wiedingen - Ahlfen - Friedrickheck - Oeningen - Harber - Tetendorf - Soltau

- Through BöhmePark, along 'Marktstraße' and 'Charlottenstraße' to Tetendorf
- In the direction of Marbostal across the golf course to Dannhorn, turn right, go up to the crossroad at the K48, go along K48 across the crossroad in the village Alm as far as Hof Alm.
- Cross the railroad and take the K16 (Visselhöveder Straße) to Wiedingen
- Cross the B 71 heading for the 'Ahlftener Flatt'
- The 'Ahlftener Flatt' is a typical little Heath lake with an average depth of just 0.5 m surrounded by lush vegetation. It is protected as an area of outstanding natural beauty. This lovely surrounding is perfect for a break.
- Go through Ahlfen, cross the B 3 and turn right towards Friedrickheck after the bridge; approx. 300 m behind the railroad turn left towards the POW cemetery, go through the district Friedrickheck to the 'Stöhrkreuz'.
- Continue through the Juniper Park to Oeningen.
- Along the 'Dittmerer Mühlenweg' to the 'Harberer Mühlenteich'.
- Through the village centre, follow the 'Abelbecker Weg' until the railway underpass.
- Along the 'Harberer Moorweg' and 'Hof Weiher' to Tetendorf.
- Pick up the route you started on and return to Soltau

AROUND NEUENKIRCHEN

Length: 38 km
Route: S1: Neuenkirchen - Behningen - Drögenbostal - Rutenmühle - Brochdorf - Neuenkirchen - S2: Neuenkirchen - Ilhorn - Sprengel - Leverdingen - Neuenkirchen

- Art in the landscape
The landscape is what makes the place special, but art is what makes it unique: To fully enjoy the scenery and the art we recommend that you allow two days for this tour. A specific map of the about 40 objects is available at the Schröers-Hof and at the Kunstverein Springhornhof.
- Stage 1: From the Schröers-Hof along the Kabenstraße straight ahead to 'Stichter See'. Along this stretch you will discover the object 'Azur' and hidden behind it 'Split Ring Birch Mount'.
- Go on towards Behningen past 'Steinfeld' and 'Aufkreuzen'.
- On the outskirts of Behningen you will see Hawolis 'Spannung'.
- 'der Nase nach' (follow your nose) straight ahead via Drögenbostal and Rutenmühle to Brochdorf. In the village this stretch you will find 'Gleichicht' and in the village 'Hir orden Bäume mit'.
- Follow the trout through lovely fields to Neuenkirchen. Along this last stretch you will find 'Augenwälder', 'Gegen Steine', 'Dialog' and 'ankommen'.
- Stage 2: Go past the outdoor swimming pool and parallel to the old railroad, 'Balance', 'Be-Züge' and 'The blue house' are the first objects you will discover.
- Halfway to Ilhorn you may recognize the early Ice Age movements in the 'Avalanche of Stones'. A detour will take you from Ilhorn to Sprengel to look at the 'Windberg' and the 'Eocentric Stone Circle'.
- Back on the road towards Steinberg you will find 'Zwischen zwei Straßen'.
- Via Leverdingen on the cycle path along the B/1 the route takes you to the car park of the Heath Adventure Trail. Surrounded by a historical 'Eikenbolten Tuin' (a traditional fence made of oak boughs) you will see the object 'Himmel und Erde'.
- A detour 'Hin und Zurück' to the 'aufgebäumter Stamm' is worthwhile.
- Continue 'der Nase nach' to the 'Hörstein' on the Schäferhof.
- On the right side of your way to 'Stichter See' you will find the 'Scales', a metaphor for the balance in and with nature.
- At and around 'Stichter See' you will find further art objects ('Business miles', 'Eiche tätowiert', 'Path maker' and 'Wege') Return to Neuenkirchen.

WIETZENDORF RING

Length: 43 km (zzgl. 37 km Neben-/ Rückführstrecken)
Route: Wietzendorf - Meinholtz - Suroide - Dehnenböckel - Klein Amerika - Marbostal - Reiningen - Wietzendorf

- The Wietzendorf Ring intends to connect people and the surrounding villages by a visible band.
- Display boards and points of interest along the route turn this tour into a veritable cycling experience for the entire family with interesting information about wild plants, the transformation of the landscape and adventure stops for children.
- Wietzenbruch and the 'Wilde Moor' are situated at the outskirts of Dehnenböckel.
- The route takes you past the artificial ponds – so called polder – in 'Klein Amerika'. There is an observation tower to watch the extraordinary polder landscape where many different bird species rest and breed.
- A very scenic alternative route of the Wietzendorf Ring takes you to the gravel pond in Reiningen - an especially nice place for a break.
- Tip: Are 43 km too long for the little ones? No problem! Due to the many alternative and return routes, the cycle tour can be shortened individually and thus is also suitable for beginners.

FROM SCHNEVERDINGEN TO WILSEDER BERG

Length: 31 km
Route: Schneverdingen - Baril - Ehrhorn - Einem - Wilsede - Niederhaverbeck - Schneverdingen

- Once inside the Nature Reserve, please follow the directions on boulders and wooden signposts.
- Starting at the town centre go along 'Schulstraße' and turn right towards Höpen.
- The Landscape conservation area Höpen offers plenty of hiking trails and cycle paths to explore the area. From quite a lot of points at Höpenberg you have distant views as far as Wilseder Berg.
- Go straight ahead, across the L 171, and go along the railroad track to Baril.
- From the B 3 in Baril turn right towards Ehrhorn, turn right again in Ehrhorn and continue on the L 211 to Einem.
- Along the foot of Wilseder Berg to Wilsede.
- Return from Wilsede to Niederhaverbeck.
- Cross the L 211 once more.
- Go through the Heath and the Niederhaverbecker Holz to the B 3.
- Turn left west of the B 3 and return to Schneverdingen through the Osterheide - the perfect location for a break and a long walk.

Length: 57 km
Route: Munster - Lopau - Rehlingen - Rehrlhof - Ilster - Munster

- The tour starts at the Tourist Information Munster.
- Go to Soltauer Straße (B 71) and turn right in the direction of Ilster.
- The Sheep Pen Church in Marienburger Straße is your first destination. It is a lovely church in a 150-year old sheep pen.
- Heading for Haus Ilster, you turn left again onto the B 71 in the direction of Soltau. Take the exit for the K 49 and then turn left in the direction of Haus Ilster.
- Carry on through the village of Ilster, after approx. 400 m turn left in the direction of the B 209.
- Via Rehrlhof and Ehlbeck towards Rehlingen. Before entering Rehlingen turn right, via Bockum to Wulfsode.
- In Wulfsode you either turn left towards Schatzen or go straight on for a detour to Lopau. In the beautiful Lopau Valley you can go on a hike and enjoy nature.
- Go through the Heath and the Niederhaverbecker Holz to the B 3.
- Go along the concrete road next to the railroad track towards the golf course in Kohlenbissen.
- Have a break at the convivial pavilion of the golf club.
- Return from the golf course to Munster.
- In Munster you can visit the interesting and unique German Tank Museum, the 'Old Village' or enjoy a break at the Mühlenteich.

BAD FALLINGBOSTEL & VILLAGES

Length: 30,5 km
Route: Bad Fallingbostal - Küddelse - Vierde - Dorfmark - Bömme - Jettenbruch - Eickhof - Aveniep - Riepe - Adolphsheide

- Turn left from 'Vogteistraße' into 'Quintusstraße' and go on to Küddelse.
- West of the A7 the route continues to Dorfmark.
- Go past the 'Strandbad' and turn left into 'Becklinger Straße' and cross the railroad.
- Heading for Haus Ilster, you turn left again onto the B 71 in the direction of Soltau. Take the exit for the K 49 and then turn left in the direction of Haus Ilster.
- Carry on through the village of Ilster, after approx. 400 m turn left in the direction of the B 209.
- Via Rehrlhof and Ehlbeck towards Rehlingen. Before entering Rehlingen turn right, via Bockum to Wulfsode.
- In Wulfsode you either turn left towards Schatzen or go straight on for a detour to Lopau. In the beautiful Lopau Valley you can go on a hike and enjoy nature.
- Go through the Heath and the Niederhaverbecker Holz to the B 3.
- Go along the concrete road next to the railroad track towards the golf course in Kohlenbissen.
- Have a break at the convivial pavilion of the golf club.
- Return from the golf course to Munster.
- In Munster you can visit the interesting and unique German Tank Museum, the 'Old Village' or enjoy a break at the Mühlenteich.

WELTVOGELPARK ROUTE 'LONG TOUR'

Length: 31 km
Route: Weltvogelpark Walsrode - city Walsrode - Meinerdingen - Düshorn - Bad Fallingbostal - Lönshede - Bornlitz - Weltvogelpark Walsrode

- Starting at the Weltvogelpark the tour takes you right through the town centre, past Walsrode Abbey to the village of Meinerdingen.
- It is worthwhile visiting Meinerdingen's church from the 13th century.
- The route continues through woodland and fields to Düshorn.
- If it is hot, why not stop at the swimming lake or for a refreshing drink at one of the restaurants.
- The tour continues from Düshorn to Bockhorn where the Flora Farm is the perfect place for a tea or coffee break. It is also possible to take part in a guided tour of the Ginseng Gardens.
- Via Bad Fallingbostal the tour goes on to the Lönsh Heath named after Hermann Löns whose grave can be found here.
- Apart from the grave there is also a memorial in honour of Hermann Löns.
- The tour continues to the village Bomlitz.
- We recommend a visit to the Cordinger Mill which is still fully functional so you can see how millers used to work.
- The scenic area Elbiau/ohheide with its vast heathland and botanical diversity is the perfect finish of the Vogelpark Route before returning to your starting point at the Weltvogelpark.
